

CHILD CANCER AWARENESS
DR. NICHOLAS MCGREGOR, PEDIATRIC HEMATOLOGY ONCOLOGY, BAYLOR
SCOTT & WHITE HEALTH

{**ON CAM**}

IF YOU SPOT A GOLD RIBBON THIS MONTH- PINNED TO A LAPEL OR HANGING FROM A DOOR- IT'S POSSIBLE SOMEONE YOU KNOW IS IMPACTED BY CHILDHOOD CANCER.

{**TAKE VO**}

TRT: 37

THAT'S BECAUSE SEPTEMBER IS CHILDHOOD CANCER AWARENESS MONTH- PEDIATRIC ONCOLOGIST NICHOLAS MCGREGOR WITH BAYLOR SCOTT AND WHITE SAYS ABOUT FORTY-FIVE CHILDREN ARE DIAGNOSED WITH CANCER EVERY DAY- THAT ACTUALLY MAKES IT EXCEPTIONALLY RARE. BUT FOR THOSE IMPACTED BY THE DISEASE... HE SAYS SEPTEMBER CAN HOLD SPECIAL MEANING.

{**TAKE SOT**}

DR. NICHOLAS MCGREGOR
BAYLOR SCOTT & WHITE
TRT: 20

"I think it's important to remember the kids that have died. Secondly it serves a purpose to honor those patients and families who have gone through this journey or process, and may still have side effects"

{**ON CAM**}

DR MCGREGOR SAYS THOSE WHO PARTICIPATE IN CHILDHOOD CANCER AWARENESS OFTEN HOLD FUNDRAISERS IN HONOR SICK CHILDREN. HE SAYS OF FEDERALLY FUNDED DOLLARS GOING TO CANCER RESEARCH- PEDIATRIC CANCER RECEIVES ABOUT 4 PERCENT.